HERE I AM

By: John McGiffin

Have you ever felt run down, your world falling apart, unsure of what's coming next? At that time, you have to make a declaration that the Lord knows best and that you are submitting to His will. He always seems to win. When Jonah wanted to flee, God had His ways of convincing him to do His will. I resisted preaching full-time until the Lord took all the other avenues away from me and only opened the doors of evangelism. I kicked against the goads for years.

There is a song Here Am I, Send Me. It is a song that my father would not sing because he was not physically able to go into the world anymore and preach. What he missed is that you don't have to stand to take a stand. You don't have to physically go to have an influence in the world.

The Hebrew word for Here am I is Hineni. It is a word spoken by inadequate, broken people that God used. It is a word that Abraham used when choosing to follow God. He was asked to do so many things that today would break many people. God asked him to leave his homeland and people, practice circumcision, send his son Ishmael away, and offer his other son, Isaac, as a sacrifice. Yet in it all, Abraham declared Here am I, trusting that God knows best.

Moses made the declaration when he was told to speak to the Pharaoh. He feared for his life. He had betrayed the Pharaoh. He was burdened with the leadership of an ungrateful nation, yet he trusted that God knew best in an uncertain time.

Isaiah told us that when things are uncertain and stacked against you, be prepared to follow God. He has a need for you in His kingdom. Be ready to do whatever He asks you to do and in whatever situation He has placed you in (Isaiah 6:8).

"There are souls who linger on the brink of woe, Lord, I must not, cannot bear to let them go; Let me go and tell them, "Brother, turn and flee," Here am I, Lord, Send me; Ready at Thy bidding, Lord, send me."
