GOD'S FINAL ACT OF CREATION

By: John McGiffin

When God created the world and all that was in it, something was missing. On the seventh day, God rested. Soon afterward, He put Adam to work. Still, something was missing (Genesis 2:20). Adam could not find a suitable helper. God made woman from the rib of Adam. She was bone of his bone and flesh of his flesh (Gen 2:23). This was the start of the institution we call the family (Gen 2:24). The family was not complete until he created the first woman, wife, and mother: Eve.

This was God's final act of creation. Some think that God finally got it right when he created Eve. Some feel the family was not complete until God created Eve. In any case, it is an honor to be the final act of creation: Women (Wives and Mothers).

Christians lift up women unlike any other religion because Christ understood their importance in the family structure. 1 Corinthians 11:7 tells us that women are the glory of men. She is the glory of man in serving God and carrying out her God-given responsibilities.

Even more so, Godly women are priceless (Prov 31:10-31). She provides direction in the home. She works hard to not only help raise children but also run the entire household while working to help provide. In other words, she is the "Queen of the home" (Titus 2:5). As a result, our mothers should be cherished. It would be good to remember that virtue is learned at a mother's knee.

We are blessed at CPR to have great examples of mothers that we can hold up as examples on this Mother's Day. Like Mary, the mother of John Mark, they open their homes and raise their children to be servants of the Lord (Acts 12:12). Let us give honor to whom honor is due (Romans 13:7). Happy Mother's Day!

Proverbs 31:26-27 "She opens her mouth with wisdom, And on her tongue is the law of kindness. She watches over the ways of her household, And does not eat the bread of idleness."
