USE THEM OR LOSE THEM!

By: Wayne Robbins

One young man, in trying to explain to his parents why he didn't have a better-paying job after receiving a fine college education, said: "When opportunity knocked, my roommate answered the door!"

I believe that God gives individuals and churches opportunities to do good for Him. Jesus said to the church at Philadelphia, "I know your works. See, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it . . ." (Revelation 3:8).

We must believe that whatever God asks of us, He gives us the opportunities to fulfill the responsibility. In asking us to teach and expand His flock, those opportunities will be there for individuals as well as churches.

If I am dull and listless as a Christian, I won't see those opportunities. Sometimes they are like shadows on the ground or puffs of smoke: fast and fleeting. At other times they may linger for a while, like a lazy cloud. The point is that we must be wise enough to see them and then do what those opportunities afford at the moments they are available.

When it comes to God-given opportunities, we either use them or lose them.
