OIL PRESS

By: John McGiffin

The Greek word Gethsemane comes from two Hebrew words. The first word "gat" means wine press. The second word, "shemanin," means oils. The Garden of Gethsemane literally means oil press. It was an ancient grove of olive trees located at the foot of the Mount of Olives in East Jerusalem.

This was the place where they would grind olives into precious oils that were used to anoint kings, heal the sick, and light lampstands. It was much like the way we used to grind wheat into flour. A heavy circular stone would roll over the olives, crushing them to release the oil.

Just before His crucifixion, Jesus went to the Garden of Gethsemane to pray (Matthew 26:36). He was so overcome by the pressures of being the single source of humanity's salvation that he sweated great drops of blood (Luke 22:44). He knew that He had to be pressed, beaten, and hung to produce the healing balm needed to wash our sins away (Isaiah 53:5-12, Jeremiah 46:11).

Jesus was "crushed" to produce a life-sustaining source for us. He experienced intense emotional and spiritual anguish. He bore the weight of ALL of our sins knowing what was coming. He did this willingly. Matthew 26:53-54 states, " Or do you think that I cannot now pray to My Father, and He will provide Me with more than twelve legions of angels? How then could the Scriptures be fulfilled, that it must happen thus?"

Without complete submission to the Father, the plan of salvation would not afford us a path to heaven. Jesus' sacrifice was the greatest love of all, for He laid down His life for us (John 15:13). It was the ONLY begotten Son of God who could save us from our own sins (Hebrews 10:4)
