SELF PORTRAIT

By: John McGiffin

My mother taught me that everything you do, you should do with all your heart (Colossians 3:23) and all your might (Ecclesiastes 9:10). Every job you do is a self-portrait. It reflects who you are. Some would say your effort is your signature on your self-portrait.

This biblical principle is a habit. Even small or mundane chores are opportunities to excel and reflect God's providence in your life. Common jobs can be done uncommonly well.

We are not only made in the image of God but also take on the name Christian when we obey the Gospel. When we wear the name of Christ, we represent His kingdom here on earth. Who wants to be part of a group that only puts in half an effort? Not doing our best may hinder our evangelistic efforts.

We all know people who give only enough effort to get by. I don't like working with those types of individuals. Synergy is created when we all put in 100% effort.

There is a misconception that in a marriage, each person gives 50% effort. This will lead to disastrous results. Each person is to give 100% effort. We are brides of Christ. He gave 100% to our relationship. We should also give 100% back to him.

1 Corinthians 10:31 Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.
